

Final Project - Clothing Visualization

For my final project, I kept track of everything I wore for 2 weeks and visualized the data in an abstracted way, focusing on colors only. The result is an interactive visualization, illuminating not only the colors of my wardrobe, but also my living habits based on when I changed clothing.